Out of the Classroom and into the Office

Senior Andrew Corney recently completed his six month work experience (PWE) with corporate partner, Commonwealth Land Title Insurance Company. Throughout those six months, Andrew spent two half days at their office helping with data management, providing office assistant and learning the daily activities of a corporate office.

When it came time for his PWE to end, Commonwealth Land Title Insurance offered Andrew a permanent part-time position! Andrew plans to continue his education at Community College of Philadelphia next year, while saving

Interact Club Launches at Liguori

Last month, The Rotary Club of Philadelphia invited us to the Pyramid Club for a luncheon where Liguori's new Interact club was officially inducted! Senior Eric Artison gave a speech about his recent experience at RYLA, which is the Rotary's leadership camp for high school students. "I went into the weekend not knowing what to expect and thought maybe I wouldn't enjoy it. I was wrong. From the people, to the food and activities, it was an overall great experience."

Eric also shared what he looks forward to most with Liguori's Interact Cub. The club offers various services projects for students to participate in and opportunities to develop leadership skills.
